THANK YOU NOTES

SPRICK

We would like to thank all those dear to us who offered their expressions of love, help and support when Al had his open heart surgery.

Heartfelt appreciation to Troy, Tara and family for doing our chores and anything that needs to be attended to.

Thanks to the "2" Dave's for pitching in where needed, plowing snow, getting bales and etc.

I greatly appreciated all the offers and rides back and forth to Rochester on those cold and stormy days. Thanks for your visits, calls and concern. Your acts of kindness shall never be forgotten!

Special thanks to all the great doctors and staff at St. Marys Hospital in Rochester and their wonderful patient care.

Thanks also for the delicious food, cards, visits and phone calls to our home.

We thank everyone for their continued help, love and concern. We both thank you all from the bottom of our "hearts."

Al and Donna Sprick 34-47c

MEINCKE

Our family would like to thank everyone for the support and kind words of friendship and concern you showed in the care and loss of our dear husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather.

Special thank you to the Lake City Medical Center and Mayo Hospice services for their special care. The wonderful employees and staff at The Bluffs of Lake City were so supportive and caring for our whole family and especially Richard in his final weeks and days here with us.

Thank you to Dave Mahn and his staff for all the arrangements and special services he provided. Special thanks to the American Legion and VFW for providing the military rites on a cold winter day. Dick would have been honored since he served many years doing that himself.

Especially grateful to Pastor Paul Otto for the wonderful and comforting service he provided and the special visits to Richard. Thanks to Joyce Zillgitt for the music and the Ladies Aid for serving the lunch.

It was a special tribute to Richard to have so many family and friends attend his funeral and visitation. We were so grateful and really blessed to have had him in our lives for so many good years.

Thank you everyone.
