THANK YOU NOTES

SIEVERS

Words cannot begin to express the gratitude we feel for all of the love and support we have received during the days leading up to and the days following Ivan's passing.

While Ivan, dad, grandpa leaves us great missing our family rock, we are proud of him for the courage and great attitude with which he battled his illness and we are grateful that he is no longer suffering.

If you knew Ivan, then you also knew he would have been humbled and somewhat embarrassed by all of the attention paid to him during the visitation and funeral. Our family is so thankful for the outpouring of respect and appreciation of him and support of us.

We are confident he is in a better place now that the Lord has taken him to be with Him and we suspect He must have need a hard worker at his side.

Thank you doesn't begin to express our feelings, but it is the best we can do at this time.

Sincerely,
Linda Sievers and Family

VFW AUXILIARY

VFW Auxiliary and Bernard Flesche Post 8729, Lake City wishes to shout out a huge "THANK YOU" to all of the crafters and vendors who brought in all their sale items and to our members and non-members who donated baked goods for our first annual Holiday Bazaar on Nov. 21 and to those who donated to our "chance basket drawings."

Without your participation, we would not have had such a successful day. We cannot tell you enough how much we appreciate your joining us and hopefully, you will all return and participate with us next year for our second annual Holiday Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 19, 2016.

All proceeds from our sale will go to the benefit of our veterans and their families, to our military personnel currently serving overseas and their families, and to support our community activities. Freedom is not free!

WOHLERS

Yes, we truly were surprised by the birthday party for our combined age of 155 years. Our thanks to Farmers Downtown Grill for their great hospitality and for preparing and serving the lunch.

Thanks to our "kids" and others who worked out all the details, and DJ Zuber.

Thanks to all that came to celebrate with us that day, and for the nice cards and gifts. We are so blessed; great family, wonderful friends and neighbors!

Thank you!
