Christopher Valen
February 13 at 10:30 am

Christopher Valen had an early interest in literature, particularly mysteries. He pursued a career in teaching after earning his B.A. in English, an M.A. in special education, and an educational administrator's license before becoming serious about his writing career. He has published several fiction and non-fiction titles, including his first novel, White Tombs (2008), and his most recent novel, All the Fields (2015).

Brian Freeman
February 20 at 10:30 am

Although Brian Freeman was encouraged to write early on in his life by both his grandmother and his eighth grade composition teacher, it wasn't until he was age 41 that his publishing career was launched. Prior to publishing his debut novel, Immoral (2005), he honed his writing skills by writing a variety of thrillers, mysteries, and a surreal erotic fantasy.

Lucy Sanna
February 27 at 1:00 pm

Lucy Sanna spent several years crafting executive speeches, annual reports, a marketing collateral, all while compiling and publishing poetry, short stories, magazine articles, and nonfiction books. She recently published her debut novel, The Cherry Harvest, a coming-of-age story which also explores the effects of a World War II German POW working in a small Wisconsin farm community.

In addition to authoring novels, she has written a compilation of short stories, and a memoir.
