FIVE for FOOD passes halfway point to $10,000 donation goal

With three weeks remaining, Five for Food has received nearly $6,000 in monetary donations toward the $10,000 goal.

For every dollar donated, the Lake City Food Shelf is able to purchase between $3 and $4 worth of food.

Five for Food provides an opportunity to turn a small contribution into a lot of food. A $10 donation is matched by the Five for Food sponsors to become $20. The $20 will buy $60 to $80 in food.

Moreover, Five for Food donations are included as March Foodshare Month donations, which qualifies for additional grants by statewide organizations. There is no better time to make your tax-deductible contribution using the Five for Food donation slip below.

THANK YOU NOTES

GNOTKE

Our family would like to express a heartfelt thank you to everyone that made our 2019 MS Fundraiser in Goodhue a huge success on March 2.

The weather was good and the crowd was awesome! Our communities, family, friends and businesses continue to support us in our effort to help end this devastating disease.

We continue to pray for more treatment options available to each and every individual living with Multiple Sclerosis and that a cure is in the near future.

God Bless and thanks for your support.

Dave and Deb Gnotke 3-43p

DEFRANG

The family of the late Richard "Dick" DeFrang would like to thank you for your acts of kindness, for the condolences and support we have received.

We also would like to thank the Mayo Care Center and Hospice for the care Dick received. Thank you Danielle for being with Dick.

Thank you Father Wilmot and Mahn Family Funeral Home for the help with the funeral arrangements and service. Thank you to the Catholic Auxiliary for the luncheon, Lisa Wallerich and Sue McElmury for the music, and the VFW and Legion color guard for their tribute.

To all who gave memorials, flowers and food, it was all greatly appreciated. Hope we didn't forget anyone.
