THANK YOU NOTES

SCHMIDT

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to all who offered their condolences, support, and kindness during our recent loss. Your words and presence provided immeasurable comfort and strength during this difficult time.

We are grateful for the outpouring of love and sympathy shown by our friends, family, neighbors, and community. Your thoughtfulness and generosity will forever be remembered.

In particular, we would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to: Father Thé Hoang, Father James Russell and Deacon Dave Dose for a beautiful Memorial Mass. The parishioners of St. Mary of the Lake Catholic Church who gave their time and talents to provide the luncheon. Huettls for the delicious food. Lisa Wallerich and Emmee Lopez for the beautiful music. Mahn Family Funeral Home for guidance and direction.

We can't thank Hospice enough for the journey they took with us as we cared for our mom. Your support meant the world to us, and we are truly touched by your compassion.

Because of the love we felt from our family and friends, we feel we were able to give our matriarch a proper send off.

While we continue to grieve in our loss, we find comfort in knowing that she was celebrated by so many. Your acts of kindness have helped us, and for that, we are forever grateful.

MEARS

Harry and I chose to make our retirement home in Lake City. The love and support provided to us over the last several weeks have made it evident that this was a good decision.

I wish to thank our neighbors, friends, church family and the entire Lake City community that came forward to help and support our family during the time when we gathered to put Harry to his final resting place with a Christian funeral.

A sincere thank you to all.
God's Blessings
Johanna Mears and Family
