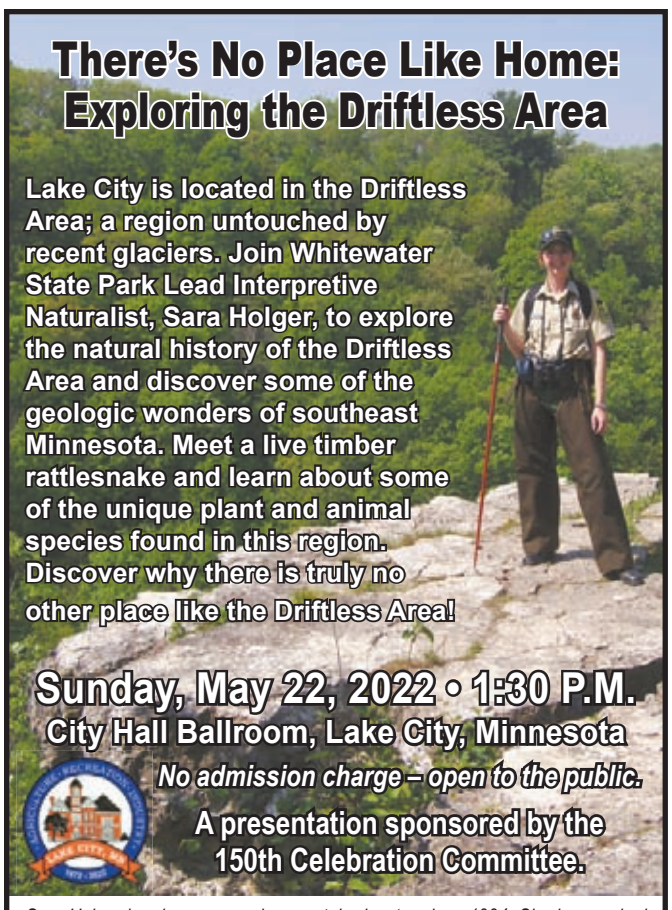
There's No Place Like Home: Exploring the Driftless Area



Lake City is located in the Driftless Area; a region untouched by recent glaciers. Join Whitewater State Park Lead Interpretive Naturalist, Sara Holger, to explore the natural history of the Driftless Area and discover some of the geologic wonders of southeast Minnesota. Meet a live timber rattlesnake and learn about some of the unique plant and animal species found in this region. Discover why there is truly no other place like the Driftless Area!

Sunday, May 22, 2022 • 1:30 P.M.
City Hall Ballroom, Lake City, Minnesota
No admission charge – open to the public.
A presentation sponsored by the 150th Celebration Committee.

Sara Holger has been an environmental educator since 1994. She has worked for the US Forest Service, the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, the Bell Museum of Natural History, Eagle Bluff Environmental Learning Center and Olmsted County Parks. Since 2006, Sara has been a naturalist for Minnesota State Parks. She is currently the Lead Interpretive Naturalist at Whitewater State Park. She is also the Founder of Project Get Outdoors, a non-profit organization working to connect low-income youth and children of color to the outdoors. Sara lives next to the Upper Mississippi River National Wildlife Refuge near Wabasha and enjoys hiking, kayaking and rock hunting with her husband, Jon, and children, Sage, Rose and Jack.

THANK YOU NOTES

KITTLESON MILLER

I would like to give a huge thank you to my hometown of Lake City, and the surrounding communities. My benefit was a big success! I have so many people and businesses to thank, but unfortunately I can't mention each one by name because there are too many, and I don't want to leave anyone out. There are some, however, that I would like to mention because they have gone above and beyond.

First, I'd like to thank the group of people that planned and organized the benefit. Sam and Lisa Kittleson, Keith and Ann Lewis, Mag Shupien, Jen Halpaus, Danny Vieths and Cassie Gruhlke-Vieths, Jake Shupien and Haley Ogoy, Chad Kruempel of Port 104, Tammy Anderson of the Lake City VFW, Shawn Ogden for organizing the music and Deick Bridley for organizing the bean bag tournament.

Second, I would like to thank Jerry and Jen Gerken and Port 104, Tammy Anderson and the Lake City VFW and Auxiliary, Huettl's Meats, Lake City Fresh Market, Marien's Deli, Wild Wings, and Three Rivers Community Action. There are so many businesses that contributed to the benefit ... a giant thank you to all of them!

Thank you kindly to everyone that donated to the silent auction, bucket raffle and bake sale, and everyone that donated money to the account at Lake City Federal. A giant thank you to the volunteers that pitched in at the benefit, from setting up and tearing down, to directing traffic, serving meals, selling tickets, assigning bid numbers, selling baked goods, and cashing out at the end of the auction/raffles. Thanks so much to everyone that attended the benefit and participated in the games, food, auction and raffles and beyond! The wonderful servers and staff at Port 104 amazed us with their resilience and kindness. Finally, to all of the musicians that donated their time and talent on the day of the benefit — I am humbled beyond words.

The next part of my list of thanks goes to John Lance Construction, Gadient Plumbing of Goodhue, Ferguson Plumbing Supply, Jamie Halpaus of Halpaus Electric, and Sam Kittleson, Bill Halpaus and Matt Shupien for remodeling parts of my home for me, and donations of building supplies. I have many wonderful neighbors who have plowed snow, picked up mail, and kept an eye on things for me.

Additionally, I owe a huge debt of gratitude to all of the emergency and law enforcement personnel that responded on the day of the accident, along with all of the Mayo Clinic staff in Rochester and Lake City.

Last, but certainly not least, I thank the people that have given me love, care, and hospitality since my accident and loss of my partner. Donnie and Andrea Kittleson, Sam and Lisa Kittleson, Jeni and Lois Tepley, Mag Shupien, Jen Halpaus, Keith and Ann Lewis, Mike Miller, Kari and Kevin Koenigs for taking care of my dogs, Olmsted Medical Center, Lincoln High School staff, the Peters Foundation, and very importantly, my two boys, Jacob and Eli Miller.

Tom Dwelle said in the March 24th Lake City Graphic, "our community turns out to help others in need." This is another perfect example of that!

Sandy Kittleson Miller
