COMPANION WANTED: I am an older, and maybe, somewhat wiser, spiritual entity in a sound human male body, having another human lifetime adventure. I would love to share this walk with a similar soft heart and inquisitive mind, mature older woman companion. To share life's stories and the varied roads we have traveled upon, and the new roads we might traverse together; could be perhaps the possible fulfilment of both of our reasons for choosing this moment for warmth, comfort, support, and joy, as we prepare with each other for another path on yet another unknown timeline when it is presented to us. An optimistic, happy, fellow traveler. Peter, 352-322-1067 or PO Box 34, Lake City, MN 55041. 16-19-4-7c

THANK YOU NOTES

HERBST

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude to all who offered their condolences, support, and kindness during our recent loss. Your friendship meant the world to Dick, and it was so comforting to have you with us.

We are forever grateful for the outpuring of love and sympathy shown by our friends, family, neighbors, and community. Your thoughtfulness and stories about Dick will forever be remembered.

Additionally, we would like to express our heartfelt appreciation to Father Thé Hoang and Deacon Dave Dose for an outstanding Memorial Mass. We would like to thank Lake Pepin Golf Course for hosting the celebration of life and luncheon. In addition, we would like to thank Delila's Cafe for the amazing meal that was served by family friends.

We can't thank St. Marys Hospital staff enough for their support and care provided to Dick during his stay in the hospital.

While we continue to grieve in our loss, we find comfort in knowing that he was celebrated by so many.
