THANK YOU NOTES

BURNS

On May 18, our family witnessed the good that lives within friends and even strangers in our community. This good poured into the VFW in Lake City to join Bill's fight against Leukemia. There are so many individuals, businesses, co-workers, friends and family, far too many to name, that deserve a standing ovation and a huge thank you for their diligent efforts in planning, preparing, donating big, small and everything in between, baking, working and pulling off a wonderful benefit.

It has been difficult to find the right words to express our gratitude toward the support, prayers, thoughts, donations and the love of family, friends, strangers and our community — all so powerful and moving. Our family continues to be overwhelmed by the outpouring selfless generosity of our amazing community. Although many of us were flitting here and there during the benefit, we did find time to witness compassion over and over throughout the day.

Blessings to each of you who joined us, in person or in thought, at the benefit as brief or as long as your stay may have been. Your prayers, support, love, hugs and your generous monetary donations will continue to get Bill, Shelly and family through this difficult battle against cancer.
