THANK YOU NOTES

RABE

Many, many thanks to family, relatives, friends and neighbors for surprising us with a good old fashion shivaree to honor us with a plaque for being the longest married couple in Minnesota with 79-1/2 years.

Also, thanks to Pastor Reich for his presentation of the plaque, the children from St John's Lutheran School and their cards, which we sure enjoyed, blankets from St John's Sharing and Caring Hands, wonderful food basket from Fiesta Foods, roses from Lake Pepin Floral, gift card from Kwik Trip and any other gifts we may have forgotten to mention. We are truly blessed.

Clifford and Margaret Rabe

NAPA AUTO PARTS

58 Years in Lake City!

A brief history of NAPA Auto Parts in Lake City - Willard and Alice Wintheiser came to Lake City in the early 1960s. Willard approached the bank with idea of opening a NAPA Auto Parts store and was refused – "too much inventory", he was told. But in 1962, with the help of relatives, he opened Wintheiser Auto Supply, Lake City's first NAPA Auto Parts store.

Willard, Alice, and their son, Charles (Chuck) took care of the community with their auto and ag parts store. Eleven years later, Chuck and his wife purchased the business. Chuck and his family ran the store from September 1973 until September 2007 – 34 years.

In 1997 they moved the store from the downtown storefront that currently houses Kemp Real Estate, to the current location of Lyon Avenue.

In September of 2007, Chuck sold Wintheiser Auto Supply to longtime employee Lloyd York. Lloyd continues to serve the local automotive needs today.

"Our community is a good one. We have appreciated your support as we have enjoyed supporting our local community." – Lloyd York

Lloyd York and Chuck Wintheiser in September of 2007

Lucky 13

To my wonderful community, I say thank you and would like to give back to you! We have just completed our thirteenth year of doing business as NAPA Auto Parts of Lake City and to commemorate this milestone we will be holding 13 days of prize drawings!
