THANK YOU NOTES

MICKELSON

We would like to express our gratitude for all the heartwarming support from friends and family upon the death of our father, grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather, Gerald Mickelson.

We want to thank everyone who made this difficult time easier with gifts of food, flowers, memorials and your presence at the visitation and funeral.

We want to thank Pastor Nathan Cordes for his comforting words and service, the organist Bob Wolff for his beautiful music and the serving of the luncheon by the Ladies Aid of St. John's Lutheran Church.

Our thanks also go to the Mahn Funeral Home for their guidance and services.

Dad's home for almost the last two years was at Pine Have Care Center in Pine Island, Minn. We have a tremendous amount of gratitude for the caring and kindness shown to him by all the staff at the care center while he lived there.

We were blessed to have our dad for so many years (96) and we are comforted knowing he is at home with his wife and sons, and ultimately his Savior Jesus Christ.
