Sincere Appreciation!

Destination Lake City (DLC), the DLC Board and our more than 50 DLC members, express our sincerest appreciation to the following companies, organizations and the more than 90 individuals for their generous contributions toward the statue of Ralph Samuelson which was dedicated at Ohuta Park on July 2, 2022. The historical marker would not have been possible if not for all those who donated so generously, along with the cooperation received from the many city departments who helped make it happen. DLC's mission statement is to "make Lake City a more vibrant place to live, work, play, and visit." With all your help, we believe that's what happened on July 2, 2022. Thank you!

THANK YOU NOTES

BURFEIND

Cindy was one of a kind, we all are, but her being in a wheelchair made it very special.

I would like to thank all those wonderful people who helped me move her stuff, plan her celebration of life party, supplied things for the celebration, and Judy and Nancy who were right here when I told them of Cindy's passing.

I could name so many people, but just know I will never forget your love and kindness in my time of need.

Words don't seem like enough, but it's all I have. God bless you all and stay safe!

Darlene Burfeind 20-33c

THANK YOU NOTES

GROBE

Our family would like to extend a huge thank you to everyone who organized, volunteered, and participated in the Kevin Grobe Benefit Ride. We would also like to thank the businesses, friends, and family who donated to the event. We saw many friendly faces from near and far and were honored to have you all spend the day with us.

Also, many thanks to all who designed, organized, and purchased the 'Krowbar Strong' t-shirts and bracelets. We are blessed to live in a caring community and are overwhelmed with the support we have received.

We are also so grateful for the many acts of kindness that our family has been shown. Whether you dropped off food, sent a card or donation, or kept our family in your thoughts and prayers, please know that we are forever grateful.

With love,
Kevin, Kathy & Kayla Grobe
